

URP ‘Platform for Leading-Edge Urban Studies’
Application Guidelines for Special (Young) Research Fellows (August 2016 Applications)

Urban Research Plaza (URP), Osaka City University is seeking to appoint URP Special (Young) Research Fellows, in order to support proactive and global standard research activities by young researchers according to the terms below.

In continuation with URP’s previous Global COE activities and in conjunction with its current “Joint Research Base” project since 2014, two classifications are available. For classification 'A', the Global Course, the researcher conducts research activities such as field work and presentations at international conferences under the general supervision of a host researcher. For classification 'B', the Meister Course, the researcher pursues an independent research project that is closely linked to the host researcher's own project. Please see the attached chart of research themes and host researchers, and apply accordingly.

1. Application Categories, Remuneration, and Number of Researchers

The two course classifications, the 'A' Global Course and 'B' Meister Course, are each divided into four categories according to the applicant’s academic level.

The appointed URP Special (Young) Researchers (including applications for only research funds) will be able to conduct research using the funds specified in their research plans. They will also be paid a researcher salary, depending on their academic degree level and whether they are receiving fellowships or salaries from other sources. However, we will not provide duplicate research funding or duplicate payments, meaning that in this case we may not provide travel expenses and salaries etc.

Please note that for the categories eligible for salary (A3 and A4, B3 and B4), the actual amount of working days awarded may not be in accordance to the applicant’s preference. The awarded number of working days will be decided in consideration of the URP’s total budget and the number of accepted applicants. Our previous candidates (March 2016 Applications) were awarded a three-day salary/ week (1 person), a two-day salary/week (2 persons), only a research fund (3 persons).

We will be accepting 5 applicants or less for the categories A1 and A2 and B1 and B2, and 3 applicants or less for the categories A-3&4 and B-3&4 (the actual number of accepted candidates may vary).
