

The 8th East-Asian Inclusive Cities Network (EA-ICN) Workshop Towards an Inclusive City for All

DATE : 11-13th July 2018 (Wednesday-Friday)

VENUE : Hong Kong Baptist University
Lam Woo International Conference Center,
and other places in Hong Kong

7/11

WORKSHOP I

Onsite Workshop

- Understanding Urban Problems and Related Policies in Hong Kong
- Exploring Private Cutting-Edge Approaches on the Ground

7/12

7/13

WORKSHOP II

Understanding the Reality of Urban Problems and Sharing Practical Experiences for an Inclusive City

SESSION 1

Support for People with Housing Difficulties and the Challenge of Cohousing

SESSION 2

The Reality of Inter-City Migration and Related Policy Issues

SESSION 3

Cities Network Conference

ORGANIZER

Osaka City University Urban Research Plaza

CO-ORGANIZERS

Hong Kong Baptist University Department of Geography,
SH Seoul Housing & Communities Corporation, Seongdong District,
Tsuei Ma Ma Foundation for Housing and Community Services, OURs

COOPERATORS

Siheung City, Seoul Institute, KOCER,
St. James' Settlement, Society for Community Organization

This workshop is conducted with support from the Toyota Foundation's 2017 International Grant Program
"Establishing a Platform for the East-Asian Inclusive City Network: From divided to inclusive cities" (headed by Jeon Hong-gyu)